

Mail Bid Sale No. 2

Michael &
Marlene Bourne
RARE NUMISMATIC LITERATURE

Welcome to mail bid sale 2. The material from this sale is from 7 major consignors as well as a few minor. This sale is nearly two times as large as our first sale last fall with many of our sections greatly expanded. While this sale contains many important items (some of them great rarities) the emphasis on cataloging this sale was to have as much lower and middle priced material as possible. We feel this is indicative of the mood of the market at this time.

Once again photography was used to a great extent in this sale, although we did use a different format for the sale. We without a doubt get more positive feedback about this part of our catalog than any other. We always have open ears to any suggestions or criticisms you may have. It is these ideas and inputs that help us produce an easier more pleasing catalog for you.

We have been very fortunate to get a table at this years ANA convention in Boston on August 17-22. We cordially invite anyone whom may be present for the convention to visit at table number 838. We will be actively buying and selling and generally chatting with those of you we have had the pleasure of doing business with in the past two years. Also, at 4:00 pm on August 17 we will be giving a presentation on collecting Numismatic Literature. This is to be held somewhere in the convention hall (we do not know where at this time) and will be printed in the program as well as being posted. We invite anyone interested in listening in on this to come and join us.

As we have done before, we urge all to keep in touch with us concerning want lists. In the past many people who have continually updated their wants with us have found that we often have the new material they are seeking available. We have found that while the market is very soft currently that the interest in literature is not lacking. The demand no longer lies as much in the higher priced material but rather in lower to middle priced items.

In the future we are considering another mail bid sale perhaps as early as mid winter. We already have a couple of consignors who would like their material sold in this time period. We would be interested in accepting any consignments for this sale in the next two months for anybody who may be considering selling all or just parts of their library. We would like to thank all that have participated in our mail bid sale and two fixed price lists prior to this sale. Also, to those who have bought and sold to us on a private basis. We hope you enjoy the sale, good luck, and hope to hear from you soon.

paper is made from a rag stock unlike many papers that converted to a cheaper wood pulp paper. The value or interest of these papers in numismatic terms is that they would be an excellent piece of Americana to include in a display of early coinage particularly of Carson City. Many of the papers have an advertisement for The Mint Saloon as well as mining notices. The papers will be sold individually and will all be sold for the same price, either at the 37th highest bid or the minimum reserve price. A bid for the entire lot will be entertained. $40.00

1918 A unique opportunity! The first 349 issues of the first newspaper ever printed, inclusive from November 13, 1665 to March 22, 1669. The first 23 issues were called the Oxford Gazette and then was later called the London Gazette. The Gazette became significant in that it broke away from traditional pamphlet style or earlier newsbooks to a two column format that is a more recognizable form of today. This was also the chief newspaper of the American Colonies until the first American Paper was published in 1704. Overall the volume is in excellent condition and is impressively leather bound. 13 issues are closely trimmed at the right margin. This set is one of fewer than eight known to exist in museums, libraries and private collections. The Smithsonian Institute does not include a single one of these early issues and even the British library does not have this complete volume. Rare. Minimum Bid $100,000.00

1919 37 different issues of the Carson City Daily Index. All from 1881, Vol. II. This paper was originally started Christmas day 1880. Only 3 institutions reportedly have these issues. Very few of these issues are probably in existence in private hands. This
